made in accordance with the law, in the Treasurer. It was a wise provision of the Legislature to take at the hands of the Courts. If there were no law, there would be no trial. There was no distress, or could not be collected, they would not remit them. He had given consideration to the law, and was convinced that the only way was as he was going to law.

Mr. LeVesons replied that the return had been made under oath, in accordance with the law, but there were some taxes that could not be collected, and notwithstanding the attention the law had received, the Collector had not given the Collector any authority to collect them, and as it was necessary to have the power to collect them, he had given the collector, in order to procure more money, and to give to his constituents, and the Collector had given all the power the Collector could give, was the best that could be adopted. The motion being out, the vote stood:

Yeas 10, Nays 1. — Charles P. McArthur, O'Hare, LeVeque, Blodgett, Brown, and Henderson.

Nay—LeVeque, Coleman and Hope, as voted by Mr. LeVesons.

“That John Kerr be and is hereby appointed Collector of the Revenue for the year 1859, and that he be appointed Collector for the uncollected Taxes of 1858; and give his account in accordance with the Law, and to the satisfaction of His Worship the Mayor.”

Curtail.

SEPARATION OF TOWNS FROM COUNCIL.

Mr. LeVesons said that steps had been made in the matter of the separation of the Council. Steps had been taken in Brockville at the same time they had been in Belleville, and they were now in full progress.

Mr. LeVesons replied, that nothing had been done, owing to the illness of Mr. Appleby, who had been confined to the house for a long time, and was now in a very feeble condition. Everything was ready, and would be proceeded with, as soon as the Arbitrator on the part of the Council would consent to it.

Mr. O’Gorman said, that there had been no differences in Brockville, that the arbitrators had agreed at once, and the question was settled, and that he had no objection to what we were here. He gives this explanation because the inquiry of Mr. Coleman might be construed into an implied censure of the arbitrators.

Mr. O’Gorman said, that the question of ensuring the arbitrators, as far as the question had been frequently put to him why the separation had not taken place, he thought an explanation.

The Council then adjourned.—Intelligence.

THE HASTINGS' CHRONICLE.

A MEDICAL REVOLUTION. THE WORLD REVOLVING.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

THE GREAT COUNTER IRITANT!

The virus of disease often makes its way to the internal organs through pores of the skin, and when it is rubbed in, it absorbed them the same as water, and, reaching the seat of infection, it attacks the skin, the mucous membranes in the liver, lungs, kidneys, or any other important organ. It penetrates the surface to the interior, and, with the skin, as summer rain passes over the fervid earth, diffuses its cool and reviving influence.

Black Disease and Glandular Swellings.

It is the disease of ulcerous irritation, quickly reduced by the anti-inflammatory action of the Ointment. Angry Ulcers, Ulcerous Ulcers, Scald Head, Nettle Rash, Scabies, (or Itch), Acne, Eczema, &c. &c. &c. In all parts of the world proves its capability in diseases of the skin, the muscles, the joints, and the bones.

AND TUMORS.

The effect of this universal external remedy upon Scrofula, and other singular ulcers and sores, is almost miraculous. It first dries them up, and then the crusts which it has raised, exfoliate, and the skin, which it has healed, becomes smooth and naturally recovered.

VARICOUS AND ABSCESSING TUMORS.

It is a cure for the sores, injuries caused by steam explosions, BURLES, BURNS, SCALDS, INFLAMMATION, SWELLINGS OF THE JOINTS, and SCROFULA.

WOUNDS AND SCARS.

It is a cure for the sores, injuries caused by steam explosions, BURLES, BURNS, SCALDS, INFLAMMATION, SWELLINGS OF THE JOINTS, and SCROFULA.

UNDENIABLE TESTIMONY.

The Medical Staff of the English and French Armies, and the Royal Household, and the medical staff of Holloway's Ointment, as the most reliable dressing for cuts, sores, and gashes, are recommended by the faculty.

It is used by surgeons of the skilled service.

THE CURE.

THE HASTINGS CHRONICLE.

ARRIVAL OF THE CIRCASSIAN.
The Peace Treaties Signed.—A Formal Proclamation Relative to Circassia yet made to known.—Our Ships Leave England for Colonies—France Uses her Influence over Sardinia.—The Above Commerce Hostile.

St. John, Nfld., Nov. 23.

The steamship Circassian, Capt. Campbell, from Galway, on Saturday Nov. 12th, arrived here at 11 o'clock, having sailed at Cork on the 10th, and the Proclamation's were issued on the 11th, and signed on the 12th. It is said that Austria had consented to the terms, and that France had agreed to the same. The number of lives lost is not yet known.

The Circassian announcing the signing of the treaties says that France and Austria agree to promote the meeting of Congress.

Sir G. C. Lewis, said, that a formal preparation had yet to be made to England for a Congress, and when it should be received by ministers world deliberate on its acceptance or the understanding that the Italians were not to be coerced.

Two hundred and four gun boats have left England for China.

The Bank of France had lost nearly 10,000,000 francs in cash during the month.

The Paris Bourgeoisie was quiet—the trades closing at 700. 15.

The Italian troops embark the Italian troops.

The day was the example of the other States of Central Italy, and conferred the repose on Paris.

The King of Sardinia sent pressure from Paris to great Britain, requesting to receive the repose.

Affairs between France and Morocco were unchanged, though it was reported that the King of Morocco had sent his brother to great Britain to grant a loan.

The King of Sardinia, Oct. 21st, and Hong Kong Sept. 25th, had reached England.

The ratification of the American treaty had produced no change in Commercial affairs in China.

(Mr. Ward, the American Minister, has gone to Paris.)

The Russians had a large naval force at Jeddah, and it was feared that trouble would arise, owing to the number of three thousand by the Japanese.

Liverpool, 12th, p.m.—The Paris Bourgeoisie closed on Friday with unchanged prices.

Mr. Maudslay has an article regarding the action of the Italians relative to the Recovery.

The Moors have commenced attacking Ceuta.

Arrival of the Africa.

New York, Nov. 25.

The steamship Africa from Liverpool on the 12th, arrived this evening.

The French fleet had come off with.

A circular by Count Walewski announces that France has demanded from Sardinia 60,000,000 francs for the expenses of the late war.

The circular also says that the French Government had received assurances that the Pope was only waiting for the moment to make public certain returns, by which the government of the clergy would be replaced by a government generally composed of laity.

The Africa among the French troops in Africa is now at anchor.

The French army for China, it is now said, will amount to 20,000 men, and they are not expected to reach China before April or May.

The Africa is assured that the King of Sardinia, in his reply to the Emperor, exonerated the French from the accusations of the Emperor in favor of the Italian rebels, and declares that he will leave to the disposal of the Congress all that relates to the reorganization of Italy.

Garibaldi had subscribed 8,000 to the numerous funds, and issued a stirring address to the members of the various associations, the Pope was filling beyond the most sanguine expectation.

The Africa, Paris correspondent says the Journal, Prince Carignan was received with extreme cordiality by the Emperor.

The statement is confirmed that Victor Emmanuel had refused to grant Prince Carignan permission to accept the Regency of Central Italy.

A Madrid dispatch says that the Moors are preparing to make a second attack to repulse them, according to our authority.

The American treaty with China would go into effect with matters are settled with England and France.

The French fleet had come off the month of October had been strengthened, and the general movements of the Chinese led to the belief that they contemplated resistance.

From Africa it is stated that the British steam packet had taken a slave with 600 negroes on board.

The Indian in the Bank of England had

Other markets as per Circular.

THE SLAVE REVOLT.

The greatest commotion exists in the Southern States, in consequence of the Harper's Ferry affair. The Slaveholders are in extreme terror of an outbreak.

There are organizations to release the unfortunate slaves, who are guarded by a large military force, great excitement.

It is said that some of the Jurors, who convicted Brown, have been burned out of revenge.

The New York Times remarks:—

"We can assure our Virginian friends that nothing which has occurred for twenty years has been so terrible to the Northern mind as the trial of Brown. A boat containing five of the crew of the steamship Indian, and brought them to port.

The agents of the Indian in Montreal have been compelled to make a second voyage, as their destination is John Brown's.

He has done more to stimulate the Abolitionists to fresh efforts, by convincing them of their feasibility, than any other incident of the day."

In Justice to Davis Palmer Killier, it is said that never was a trial which gave such a general interest to the country, and which kept a whole nation in suspense with such a rapid as it was the cause of conversation for weeks.

W. W. ROBERTS, Dr. Lister, Le Port, Fort.

One has been an article showing the position of France on a question of war with England. The chief article for the opinions expressed is a respect.

It is stated that in France the prospect of a war with England is increasingly discussed.

in the high places of power, in the public offices, in the army and navy, among the men of business. The army is reported to be unanimous for war; in the navy the desire for it among the men of the French and the French in as eager as still the navy. The demands are that in a war with England the French Emperor and the power of satisfying the army and navy; of gratifying the clergy; of winning over the legitimists, and securing the safety of a united people.

COMPLIMENT TO CANADA.

At a banquet given at Holyhead by the Directors of the London and North Western Railway Company, to the Directors of the Great Ship Company, Mr. Gladstone, the Minister of the Exchequer, was a guest.

It will be remembered when he left the seat of the new Parliament Ministry, Lord

Granville opposed Mr. Gladstone's return for Oxford, and the contest was a very keen one. Yet the noble lord as chairman of the railway company spoke in favor of the Colonial Empire, and had his success as Minister, in favoring terms, and Mr. Gladstone as graciously responded:—

These are gentlemen, not rough; and do not forget the amenities of life even in the heat of political strife.

Mr. John Pakington, the son of Sir John Pakington, who represented the Colonial Empire, coupling with it the name of Messrs. Hinchliffe and John Ross, who had been sent to represent the West Indies and Canada. We subjoin the following:

Sir J. Pakington, in proposing "Our Colonial Empire," and he believed it might state, without fear of contradiction, that there never was a moment when the town was more appropriate to the presence of Sir John Pakington than at the present time to say that our colonial empire was of no value to us, and that we might as well get rid of it as any other property.

He now, for only, while disengaged from this opinion; and it gave him heartfelt satisfaction to know that at no period was there a nobler or more distinguished statesman and his colleagues stronger than now, in contradistinction to that opinion he might refer to, of the nobles and gentlemen which were then to be found in the house of commons.

He had no few, who had been dispersed at different times to say that our colonial empire was of no value to us, and that we might as well get rid of it as any other property.

He believed in the opinion he had
